

Deregulation has been a disaster in every country. It's big money for those at the top. Consolidation will mean less diverse information and thus the dumbing down of the public and weaking of our democracy. Shame on you for stealing the airways for a few when citizens need access to all information to make informed decisions.